Surry Hills and Darlinghurst are an essential destination for those who want to know the real Sydney. This tour will usher you into one of Australia's oldest convict jails, seeking out vintage finds and hidden art galleries that culture hunters will adore. Explore the Sydney precinct with the densest population of cafes, restaurants and creative minds, then enjoy a transfer back to your Sydney accommodation.

Day 4 Depart Sydney onboard the Indian Pacific Train bound for Adelaide

Your transcontinental adventure begins as the train pulls away from the platform in Sydney mid-afternoon. As you wind your way through the truly breathtaking Blue Mountains, a sumptuous dinner is served alongside an array of fine wines. After dinner, feel free to relax with a nightcap before heading off for a restful night's sleep.

Day 5 Arrive Adelaide Mid Afternoon

This morning you'll arrive in the 'Silver City' that is Broken Hill to embark on one of two off-train excursions. Whether you learn more about the mining and cultural history of the city or view an impressive piece of art, both options end with a leisurely breakfast back onboard the train as you make your way west. Relax, sit back and take in more astounding views as the train barrels on – before you know it, lunch will be served and you'll be entering the southern tip of the Flinders Ranges. By mid-afternoon, arrive in Adelaide (known as the cosmopolitan capital of Australia) where you can spend the evening exploring charming colonial streets, selecting unique souvenirs at the Adelaide Central Markets and uncovering hidden gems among the many bars and restaurants.

Day 6 Fleurieu Food, Wine and Wildlife Tour

This tour takes you south to the picturesque McLaren Vale Wine Region, known for its distinctly Mediterranean feel thanks to its location so near to the coast. The area features some of the most beautiful scenery in the state, and includes wineries such as Wirra Wirra, d'Arenberg, Coriole and the historic Hardy's winery. Other attractions include the Olive Grove or cheese and wine trail, or you can journey south to the town of Goolwa for a possible glimpse at a Southern Right whale. Down by the sea, visit one of the local brew houses or stop in Victor Harbor for a ride along the causeway. Australia's only horse-drawn tram links the mainland to Granite Island, home of the Little penguins.

Day 7 Adelaide to Uluru (Ayers Rock) with dinner under the stars

Today you'll say goodbye to Adelaide and hello to the Outback! Ayers Rock (or Uluru) sits prominently in the Red Centre and is renowned as the spiritual heart of Australia. Rich in Aboriginal culture, you'll find that it truly encompasses the beauty of its surroundings, including your accommodation: Sails in the Desert Hotel. After your transfer, the day is at leisure until evening when your journey begins. Starting on a lone sand dune, a path takes you to an uninterrupted 360-degree view of this vast landscape. In front of you is the fabled Uluru, and behind are the domes of Kata Tjuta enhanced by the glow of the sunset. Here you enjoy sparkling wine and a selection of delectable canapés before feasting on a BBQ buffet of authentic Australian delicacies including barramundi, kangaroo, emu and crocodile, bush salads and classic desserts, complemented by Australian wines. Attention then turns to some of the world's best stargazing, as the local guide takes you on a tour of the spectacular southern night sky.

Day 8 Uluru Sunrise Tour & Sunset Camel Ride

One of the most impressive features of Uluru is the way it shifts colors in the changing light—flaring to life as the sun rises and bathing it in bright red and deep purple tones as it sets. Today you will witness the magnificent spectacle at both times of day, first with a guided trek around the base of Uluru where you'll embrace the culture, geology, and environment that make up the essence of this amazing natural attraction. Find yourself in awe as you watch Uluru change colors in the sunrise, visit waterholes, view ancient rock art sites, and learn the legends of the native Anangu people. This evening, ride camels through the desert and witness Uluru transform at sunset.

Day 9 Uluru to Port Douglas

Your adventure continues today as you fly to Cairns and transfer to your fabulous hotel in Port Douglas for 3 nights. This is a truly special place where the ancient Daintree Rainforest meets the Great Barrier Reef, and you'll have 3 days to discover it all through nature walks, guided bird walks, star gazing, snorkeling, kayaking and much more.

Day 10 Kuranda Rail Rainforestation Skyrail w/Lunch

Today a transfer from your hotel takes you to Freshwater Station for your rail journey on a historic route through the cane fields of Cairns to the tropical rainforest of Kuranda. Upon arrival, spend some free time exploring the village before going to Rainforestation's 40 hectares of gardens for activities. Board the unusual amphibious Army Duck for a different look at the rainforest and let your experienced guide show you unique tropical fruits, ancient plants and native animals that you may not otherwise notice. A barbecue lunch is enjoyed before visiting the Koala and Wildlife Park, where you can cuddle a koala (own expense), smile at a crocodile and hand feed the kangaroos and wallabies. Your tour concludes with an exhilarating ride on the Skyrail Rainforest Cableway – a great way to see the rainforest canopy, CSIRO Interpretive Centre and Smithfield Skyrail terminal – and scheduled return to Cairns.

Day 11 Great Barrier Reef Outer Reef Experience Cruise & Fly

Today you'll be collected from your hotel and transferred to Port Douglas Marina to board the vessel for your cruise. At the outer edge of the continental shelf you'll arrive to Agincourt Reef, home to the multi-level floating platform where Quicksilver has facilities for both swimmers and non-swimmers to enjoy. Whether from a semi-submersible or through the underwater observatory, you'll feel completely mesmerized by this lively and complex ecosystem. Your return to Port Douglas is via a 35-minute scenic helicopter flight, passing over pure white sand cays and viewing the amazing kaleidoscope of colors that make up the Great Barrier Reef and tropical Daintree Rainforest.

Day 12 Depart Port Douglas

After a wonderful vacation, it's time to say goodbye to Australia. We have included a private transfer to the airport to begin your journey home.
