INTRODUCTION

Set amidst 6,000 acres of rolling pastures, The Farm at Cape Kidnappers is a boutique resort in Hawke's Bay, New Zealand. Part of the prestigious Relais & Chateaux collection, it combines a boutique lodge with an award-winning golf course and indulgent spa, providing the perfect escape from reality – one we certainly wouldn't blame you for wanting to extend.

The lodge itself is a beautiful building, outfitted with rustic materials and cozy up-to-date furniture. Each of the rooms has a light and warm feel, inviting you to relax, enjoy a meal or sit back with a good book. Gather with other guests at the end of the day to share a drink over stories, and enjoy dishes made only from fresh local ingredients. Each moment at Cape Kidnappers holds an opportunity to unwind, so you can relax and rejuvenate for tomorrow's adventures.

Cape Kidnappers can be found at the southernmost point of Hawkes Bay, 12 miles outside of Napier. A fantastic location commanding 180-degree views of the Pacific, you can stand in awe of jagged rock formations over 300 feet tall, a curving five-mile peninsula and of course the crashing waves that reach to kiss it from below.

Flights to Cape Kidnappers from Auckland or Wellington are each under an hour, and can be arranged on one of Air New Zealand's scheduled daily flights. Upon request, Cape Kidnappers staff will meet you at the airport, welcoming you to their home and accompanying you through the tail end of your journey.

STAY

Cape Kidnappers is home to four kinds of suites: the four-bedroom Owner's Cottage with open fireplaces, private balconies, an open kitchen and its own Jacuzzi; the Ridge Suites, which accommodate two and are in close proximity to the lodge's pool; the Lodge Suite, with its stunning rustic-luxe design and one bedroom for two; and the Hilltop Suite, which also sleeps two alongside magnificent views over the golf course and ocean.

Regardless of which suite you choose to stay in, all include air conditioning, an LCD television with a DVD player, a CD player and iPod dock, safe, minibar, walk-in wardrobe and bathroom with twin vanities and separate tub and shower.

Hilltop Suite

Perched atop a hill, the 500 square-foot Hilltop Suites offer a magnificent view over the lodge and golf course to the vast Pacific. Offering comfort and spectacular vistas, these thoughtfully-designed rooms have private balconies, king-size beds and elegant bathrooms with twin vanities and oversized bath.
